Floods, Wildfires, Tornadoes, Winter Storms, Hurricanes...What Concerns You?

Do you have ideas for helping our community become better prepared for future natural disasters?

You are invited to bring your thoughts and local knowledge to a Public Meeting on the development of the Unifour Regional Hazard Mitigation Plan, which is an update to the individual hazard mitigation plans of Alexander, Burke, Caldwell and Catawba counties.

About the Unifour Regional Hazard Mitigation Plan

The counties of Alexander, Burke, Caldwell and Catawba, in coordination with their participating municipal jurisdictions, are preparing a regional hazard mitigation plan that will cover the four-county Unifour area. The Unifour Regional Hazard Mitigation Plan will identify local policies and actions for reducing risk and future losses from natural hazards such as floods, severe storms, wildfires, and winter weather. It will build upon four separate hazard mitigation plans that were initially prepared by each county in coordination with their municipalities.
