‘60s buffs: Library has you in mind

NEWTON—An array of period movies have been added recently to the Catawba County Library System.

Those waxing nostalgic for the ‘60s are in luck. The Complete Gidget Collection starring Sandra Dee and James Darren will take you back to the drive-in days.

Other notable films from the era include The Graduate, which made Dustin Hoffman a household name, The Lion in Winter starring Katherine Hepburn and Peter O’Toole, Muscle Beach Party and Ski Party, a double feature with former Mouseketeers Annette Funicello and Frankie Avalon.

Those wanting to re-create a nostalgic car trip should consider A Ride Along the Lincoln Highway, a documentary about old US 40 from New York to San Francisco.

This is a sample of dozens of new DVDs available for checkout. For specifics, visit any location of Catawba County Library System or go on-line at <http://www.catawbacountync.gov/library/>.
