Include library in your Labor Day plans

NEWTON—Books and DVDs are wonderful companions for Labor Day weekend.

Library customers may take library materials along, whether it's a book for the beach, an audio book for the road or a video for evenings at the mountain getaway. Downloadable books are also available on-line to library cardholders.

Catawba County Library System will observe the holiday on Monday, Sept 7, but library materials may be picked up before or after that date, while materials may be dropped off at any time.

Sunday hours resume on Sept. 6 from 2-6 p.m. at Main Library, Conover, Southwest and St. Stephens branches. For more information about library services or programming, contact Lynne Bolick Reed at 465-8292.
