CATAWBA COUNTY ANNOUNCES NEW LOCATIONS FOR SENIORS MORNING OUT

HICKORY -- Catawba County's Senior Nutrition Services has two new locations for its Seniors Morning Out Program.

These are at Center United Methodist Church, 2945 Sherrills Ford Road, Catawba; and at Huntington Hills Church of God, 2123 Fifth Street, NE, Hickory.

Pastor John Love and the leadership of Center United Methodist, said in a statement: "We are blessed to have the opportunity to house the Catawba Seniors Morning Out Program. We have been looking for a mission opportunity to serve the community, and this opportunity dropped in our lap. What a privilege it is to be able to be involved in this program."

Pastor Harv Turner of Huntington Hills Church of God, said: "It is our privilege to partner with Catawba Senior Nutrition Service and Jan Shaffer (supervisor of the program) as a means of outreach to impact our community and the great people of Hickory and beyond."

There are a total of five locations where the Seniors Morning Out program is held. The others are at West Hickory Senior Center, 400 17th Street, SW, Hickory; at Maiden Community Center, 207 East Klutz Street, Maiden; and at First Presbyterian Church, 701 North Main St., Newton.

Seniors Morning Out is free and open to any resident of Catawba County who is 60 or better. The program includes a variety of fun and informative activities as well as monthly outings. A hot, balanced lunch is also provided. The program operates from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, except for holidays. Bus transportation is available to county residents who cannot drive. This program is not limited by income. Any county resident who is at least 60 may attend.
