POKER RUN TO BENEFIT CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY AND PROTECTION CENTER OF CATAWBA COUNTY

HICKORY -- The Catawba Valley Harley Owners Group will host a poker run Saturday, Aug. 29 to benefit the Children's Advocacy and Protection Center of Catawba County. The rain date will be Sunday, Aug. 30.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. at Blue Ridge Harley-Davidson. The first bike out will be at 10:30 a.m., and the last bike out at noon. The last bike in will be at 2 p.m. A meal will be served by Blue Ridge Harley-Davidson. There will be door prizes, a 50/50 drawing, and music. The first 25 registered bikes will get a free event tee shirt. Drawings for door prizes will be held at 2:30 p.m. The best hand will win $200, and the worst hand $50. The cost to participate is $20 per rider and $10 per passenger.

For more information about the poker run, contact Billy Dagenhart at 828-850-3275 or Blue Ridge Harley Davidson at 828-327-3030
