Johnson Appointed New Board Member of Catawba County Social Services

The Department of Social Services and their Board of Directors welcomes Christopher Johnson to the board. He has been appointed by the State Social Services Commission to fill the seat on the Catawba County Board of Social Services vacated by Kimberly Boyd. He was administered the Oath of Office as the Social Services Board Meeting on July 17, 2007.

Mr. Johnson is a counselor and educator. He has worked with the Salvation Army, Safe-Harbor Board, at-risk youth in public housing, and the homeless population. Mr. Johnson is currently involved with Exodus Homes, the Catawba Valley Rotary Club, and is a deacon at Exodus Outreach Church. Mr. Johnson will serve a three-year term of July 1, 2007 - June 30, 2010.
