

NATIONAL TRY TRANSIT WEEK

September 11 - September 15

The second week of September is National Try Transit Week. Discover some of the many benefits of public transportation by taking Greenway Public Transportation to work, shopping, or to visit a friend. Public transportation eases traffic congestion, reduces energy consumption, and saves money. Discover the benefits of safe, reliable transportation September 11th through the 15th during Try Transit Week. For more information visit www.mygreenway.org.

FREE FARE DAY – “Car Free Day”

Wednesday, September 22, 2010

Let Greenway Public Transportation do the driving Wednesday, September 22th and they'll pick up the fare. Leave your car at home and take the Greenway! It's a “car-free”, carefree day, but no matter what you call it, it's your chance to experience some of the benefits of public transportation first hand. Whether it's saving money and energy or improving air quality, be a part of the “car-free”, carefree, fare free day September 22th on the fixed route service offered in the cities of Conover, Hickory, and Newton and the Town of Taylorsville. Call 828-464-9444 for the nearest bus stop and route schedules or visit us on the web at www.mygreenway.org.
