Artists and Authors Celebration on September 29

NEWTON, NC – Time flies when you are having fun! It has been one year since the Sherrills Ford-Terrell Branch moved to its new location and it's time to celebrate its many enhanced services for the community. Since its opening, the Sherrills Ford-Terrell Branch registered 1,010 new library patrons and held nearly 200 programs for the community. The branch will celebrate its successful first year with an Artists and Authors Celebration on Tuesday, September 29 from 4 pm to 8 pm. All are invited attend the free, family-friendly Anniversary Celebration.

To celebrate, the Sherrills Ford-Terrell Branch will host a selection of local artists and authors showcasing their work. The program will also include children's story times, rock decorating and other activities. Attendees will also get the chance to learn more about Sherrills Ford-Terrell history from two local historians. And of course, a celebration wouldn't be complete without a cake!

So join us, check out the local art scene, meet an artist or two, hear a great story and have a piece of cake!
