Conover move in progress

Work is under way to ready the Conover Branch Library for re-opening on Tuesday, September 20. Staff and volunteers are unpacking boxes of library materials and arranging furniture before the doors open at noon next Tuesday.

The new branch address is 403 Conover Station, SE and is located in the Warlong Building on the former Broyhill plant property along the railroad tracks downtown. Business hours will remain unchanged as 12 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, 9- 6 p.m. Wednesday through Friday and 9 - 2 on Saturday. The phone number will remain as 466-5108.

Library assistant David Williams and volunteer Libbie Lynn unpack adult fiction books for shelving at Conover Branch due to re-open on September. 20.

Conover Branch is part of the Catawba County Library System which is headquartered in Newton. Other facilities include Maiden, Claremont, St. Stephens, Sherrills Ford and Southwest. Updates about the library are available on the website, <http://www.catawbacountync.gov/library> as well as Facebook and Twitter.
