

NCEF announces TOUR OF HOMES

The annual holiday showcase of the Newton-Conover community's historic homes is here again as the Newton Conover Education Foundation raises funds for educational opportunities.

The Newton Conover Education Foundation announces the 2011 Holiday Tour of Homes will be Thursday, Dec. 1, from 5 to 8 p.m.

Homes on the tour this year come from Newton's historic districts. Stops include the Setzer home, the Sample home, the McIntosh home, the Nolley home, the Elliott home and the Freeman home. All residences will be elegantly decorated in their holiday finest and will be open for the community's enjoyment.

The tour kicks off at Zander's Coffee House in downtown Newton where event-goers can register for door prizes. Refreshments will be available at 2 Pink Magnolias. People can enjoy visiting the homes at their own pace from 5 until 8 p.m., and many are within easy walking distance of downtown Newton.

Ticket cost for the tour is $15 per person, and proceeds benefit teacher grants, educational trips and scholarships within the Newton-Conover City Schools system.

Tickets are available for purchase at the Newton Conover City Schools Administrative Office, 2 Pink Magnolias, Conover City Hall, The Observer News Enterprise, Shops on Main and Zander's Coffeehouse.

For more information find Newton-Conover Education Foundation, Inc. on Facebook or visit the Newton-Conover City Schools website, www.NCCS.k12.nc.us.

Inclement Weather Date: Monday, December 5