County library curbs schedule for staff development

Catawba County Library System will delay opening until 1 p.m. on Monday, February 23 to allow library employees to attend staff development sessions.

Main Library in Newton as well as the St. Stephens, Southwest and Sherrills Ford-Terrell branches will be affected by the schedule change. Newton usually open at 9 a.m. on Mondays, and St. Stephens, Sherrills Ford and Southwest at noon. Claremont, Conover and Maiden branches are always closed on Mondays.

Customers may drop off library materials in book drops as well as place holds and renew library materials and access digital media through the library website at any time. For more information about on-line resources, log on to www.catawbacountync.gov/library or ask a librarian.

About: The Catawba County Library System, headquartered in Newton, NC, serves the citizens of Catawba County with seven branches throughout the county and is a year-round, integral provider of early literacy and lifelong learning. In addition to traditional services, the system provides a full complement of computer and digital services, classes and support to bridge the digital divide, empower job seekers, and enhance community quality of life and economic health.
