Find a Job @ Your Library

July 30, 2015

The Catawba County Library System – our community’s place to connect, explore and grow – is now partnering with the NC Works Career Centers to connect people with jobs.

On Wednesdays, beginning August 5th, a career specialist will be available at the Main Library in Newton from 10 am to 2 pm to assist people in finding a job. Trained NC Works career specialists will also offer classes at 10 am on Wednesday, August 5th and 19th to guide people as they navigate the NC Works online website. One-on-one assistance is also available for help finding and applying for a job.

Stop by the library and ask for Matthew or Cynthia on Wednesdays, from 10 am to 2 pm, so they can help connect you with a job.

For the latest in library news, visit the library’s news site at <http://enewsletter.catawbacountync.gov/library> or stop by your local branch.

About: The Catawba County Library System, headquartered in Newton, NC, serves the citizens of Catawba County with seven branches throughout the county and is a year-round, integral provider of early literacy and lifelong learning. In addition to traditional services, the system provides a full complement of computer and digital services, classes and support to bridge the digital divide, empower job seekers, and enhance community quality of life and economic health.
