Check county library for new popular fiction

Newton, NC, Dec. 15, 2014

Fiction aficionados are in luck at Catawba County Library. A number of new novels by popular authors are coming to the shelves in the next few weeks, so now's the time to place your hold.

Jayne Ann Krentz, Linda Lael Miller, James Grippando, and James Patterson are just a few of the best-selling authors with new books in the pipeline.

January will see the release of The Marriage Charm by Linda Lael Miller. The new romance is part of the Brides of Bliss County series and involves jewelry designer Melody Nolan in search of a husband.

Trust No One is the title of Jane Anne Krentz's new novel involving Grace Elland who goes on the world's worst blind date and is later being stalked. Expect this romantic suspense title in early January.

Cane and Abe will quench the thirst of crime readers. Best-selling author James Grippando's latest suspense novel involves Miami's top prosecutor as a prime suspect in his wife's disappearance. Look for its release Jan. 20.

James Patterson scores another thriller in his "Private" series with Private Vegas, about a private eye investigating a murder ring in the city of sin. Jan. 26 is the publication date.
