Register to vote at the library

Newton, NC, Sept. 15, 2014:

In celebration of National Voter Registration Day, Catawba County Library will have displays and voter registration forms available at all library facilities.

The registration drive encourages citizens to sign up in time for the November elections. Library locations include the Main Library in Newton as well as Conover, Claremont, Maiden, Sherrills Ford, St. Stephens and Southwest (Mountain View).

National Voter Registration Day is Tuesday, Sept. 23. The observance is sponsored by a nonpartisan group to ensure that as many potential voters are properly registered by Election Day, Nov. 4.

According to the Pew Center on the States, an estimated one in eight registered voters have registrations that are incorrect or are ineligible for some reason. For example, if you've moved, you must update your address.

Library staff will make the registration forms available. Individual voters must return the forms to the Board of Elections office by hand delivery or through the postal service. Questions about voter registration should be directed to the Catawba County Board of Elections Office at the county Government Center or by calling (828) 464-2424.
