

National Register of Historic Places Web Site Map Information

<http://gis.ncdcr.gov/hpoweb/>

All features can be obtained from this site.

The user is encouraged to view the tutorials and experiment with the tools on the site to become familiar with the web page as it offers a wealth of information. Tutorials are accessed by a tab on the “Welcome to HPOWEB” dialogue box. A general listing of web features is shown below:

Web Site Map Tools

The Search Historic Resources Tool (red arrow) allows the user to search by Site, ID Number, Description, or County. Individual search layers include All HPO Data, National Register, Study List, Determined Eligible, Surveyed Only, and Locally Designated sites.

The Zoom to Places Tool allows the user to Zoom to a Road, Unincorporated Town, County, Quad, Geographic Features, or create a Custom Zoom.

The Find an Address Tool allows the user to enter a specific address.

The Street View Tool allows the user to view a selection to be seen in satellite or map view.

The Drawing Tool allows the user to measure a distance or annotate the screen.

The Helpful Links Tool offers multiple features including an Alphabetical Listing of all NC sites and HPO staff contacts. Original Nomination Information is available to each site on the Alphabetical Listing.

- Click on “PDF” to the right of the entry to open the National Register Nomination. This is the documentation submitted with the original application request to be placed on the Historic Register.
- Click on “Map” to open HPOWEB, the HPO’s online map service to see the location of the site or district.

Map Legend Tool

- Light Blue Circle: National Register Individual Listing
- Dark Blue Circle: National Register listing which no longer physically exists
- Light Blue Star: National Register Historic District Center Point
- Light Blue Polygon: National Register District Boundary
- Dark Blue Polygon: Destroyed/Removed National Register District Boundary
- Light Green Square: Study List Individual Entry

A more in-depth listing can be seen on the Legends Tool pull-down menu.
