

Bringing beautiful and creative recycled art to the world, while also helping to save it! The very talented 6th, 7th & 8th grade classes at St. Stephens Lutheran School displayed their latest recycled art project, an Octopus made with plastic bags, at the Earth Day/Family Fair Event held on Saturday, April 26th, 2014 at the Salt Block in Hickory.