ENSURING OUR FUTURE

WITH YOUR DREAMS, YOUR SUPPORT

WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE A LIBRARY CAN BE?

We've begun to envision and design the future of library services in Catawba County!

Local growth and economic trends indicate that library usage will continue to increase, so we're contemplating the best ways to serve county residents, deliver exceptional quality of life, and keep a focus on making.living.better.

Our new strategic plan will help us expand library services and create facilities that will anticipate – and respond to – community needs. We're looking at how to bring people together and exploring what residents want for their lives – tailoring our resources and spaces to deliver what matters most.

By hearing and seeing what engages our patrons, we're creating environments that welcome every individual.

Thanks to our strong community connections, we're able to maximize our efforts and create a web of support and success.

This month, we'll be hosting a series of public forums to invite comments from any resident who would like to participate. From there, we'll coordinate a community-centered plan to help us create a future that continues to delight you, your family, and everyone who calls Catawba County home. Please join us!

WILL YOU HELP CREATE A LEGACY?

As we dream of what the library can be for the residents of Catawba County, we're also searching for ways to make lifelong learning a long-term, sustainable prospect. As part of that plan, we've set up a Library Endowment to guarantee that what we all cherish as people of curiosity and initiative can live on.

The endowment is a powerful way to nourish community dreams and goals. As a protected fund, it grows each year and ensures that the library will be able to offer free learning opportunities and spaces for all people, now and into the future. Your donation lasts forever because all contributions build on the principal and remain untouched; the interest is reinvested or used to enhance library services. As a result, this sensible, well-managed resource will make sure that the library has the flexibility to continually improve the quality of life for all Catawbans.

While support of the endowment is available at any time, sharing a gift at the end of the year provides advantages: First, it allows you to make a worthwhile, tax-deductible donation before 2019 wraps up. Second, it offers the chance to contribute in someone else's name – a perfect gift for the person who already has everything! (To acknowledge your gift, we'll send a holiday card to your honoree.)

To donate online, visit www.catawbacountync.gov/library (click on the Give Now image). To donate by mail, send gifts to the Catawba County Library Endowment at 115 West C Street, Newton, NC 28658. To donate in person, visit any of our seven library locations. For more information, call 828.465.8660.

We're incredibly thankful for your ongoing support of the library. Happy Holidays from all of us!
